A true definition of naturall Astrologie by the Author.

Astrologia verè ac eruditè physicæ pars est, inquirens proprietates, vires, effectus ac significationes stellarum, quas in elementari natura & microcosmo excitant, non quidem curiosè & superstitiosè, sed verarum observationum & rationalis experientiæ testimoniis, idq; per certas hypotheses artisque principia & Phænomena. Horum principiorum naturam & demonstrationem generalem oculus ponet doctrina Sphærica. Est enim cœlum vehiculū divinæ virtutis, quo, mediante motu & lumine stellarum tanquam causis secundis, Deus cuncta hæc inferiora gubernat & disponit. Non tamen necessitant absolutè, sed conditionaliter, & inclinant fortiter.

In the 7. or last column of this my Almanacke towards the right hand, you haue the houre and minute of the Sunne riſing for euery day in the yeare at London: which houres and minutes are halfe the length of the ſame night. For example: the 5. of Ianuary, the Sunne riſeth at London, at 8. of the clocke, & no min. after: that length being doubled, makes 16. houres and no min. the length of that night. And to know the time of the Sun-ſetting in the ſame place through the yeare take the houres and min. found in the Almanacke for Sunne-riſing from 12. and you ſhall haue the Sun-ſetting left, which being doubled, is the length of that day. Example: Ianuary the 5. day aforenamed, the Sunne riſeth at 8. and no min. take 8. from 12. and there reſteth 4. houres of Sun-ſet that day, the houre of 4. being doubled maketh 8. houres, the length of that day, and ſo of all the reſt. This is very eaſie. Note alſoe, that you ſhall finde in the 6. Columne vnder the title full Sea at London bridge, the houre of full Sea there, at Tinmouth, & at Hartlepole: and it is to be taken from the New-moone to the full in the After-noone according to the houre and minute there ſet downe: and after the full to the change, it is high water at thoſe places the ſame day and houre in the morning.

This mon'th good husbandmen, by tilling of the land,
They iustly get, by labour of their hand;
And through the sweat which issueth from their paines,
They reape the harvest, of their honest gaines.

When wife ſpeak's moſt, do you leaſt ſpeech afford,
For ſilence cuts a ſhrow, woſſe than a ſword;
A froward wife, for very ſpite will cry,
When thy neglect, doth ſcorne her tyranny.

With loue and not with fury, let her know,
Her errors ground, for thence amendments grow:
A gentle hand, a Colt doth sooner tame,
Than chaines or fetters, which do make him lame.

A very prettie and true way, to know what a clocke it is day or night through the world.

Any two being together, let the one of them take from the ground ſome one thing what he pleaſeth, and giue it you.

If the thing haue growne and may grow againe, as ſeeds, hearbs, or ſuch like, it is } A clocke 1.4.7. or 10

If it neuer grew, nor euer ſhall, as ſtones, mettals, potſhards, or ſuch like. It is } A clocke 2.5.8. or 11

If euer it did grow, and may not grow againe, as ſticks, chips, ſhels, or ſuch like, it is } A clocke 3.6.9. or 12

But remember this Caution, that both he that giues iudgement, and hee that taketh the thing, know not what houre it is before they try the matter. Probatum eſt.

In this Figure of Type, the great blacke circle figureth the shadow of the earth, and the 3 circles neere all of like bignesse, each of whose circumference is the body of the Moone: and what the right lines do figure, the letters doe shew, for the letters A D doe represent the semidiameter of the shadow of the earth, at the time the Moone is eclipsed, &c. As for the letters of the Moone from the Ecliptick line, which Ecliptick is marked with L C

The time of apparent magnitude of the Tropicall yeare, 365 dayes, 5 houres, 55 scrup. 37 secunds, 48 thirds.

And it beginneth the 21 day of March, 21 min. of secunds after noone Æquinoctially: at which time the Sunne entereth the first minute of the Equinoctiall signe Aries, making equall day and night.

Direction, is the progression of a Planet according to the succession of the signes, which is made from the West into the East: as from Aries into Taurus, from Taurus to Gemini.

Retrogradation, is a motion of a Planet moueing contrary to the succession of the signes, from East into the West, as when a Planet returneth from Taurus into Aries.

Stationary, is a motion of a Planet, like a man resting quiet, viz. when a Planet goeth forward neither towards the East, neither towards the West in the Zodiacke. A Planet is said to be Occidentall, wherein ☽ moueing it riseth before ☉ Sun: and Occidentall, is when she setteth after the Sun.

The line Ecliptick is a circle in the very middle of the Zodiacke, under the which the very middle or center of the Sunne doth continually moue.

Latitude in the Heauens, is the shortest of distance of the Planets or Starres from the Ecliptick, (as the right line H I. signifieth the difference of the Moone in the Lactius from the Ecliptick line in the Type of the Circuit of the Moone before) either Northwards or South ward.

Altitude of a Planet, is the mention of such a Planet, in which it is contained from the very place of the Heauen, as from the center of the Earth, into the [illegible] place, as touching the circle, moſt highest point, and moſt remote from the

The Loweſtnes of a Planet, is when as he is ſeen in the oppoſition of his Auge, and then he is ſaid to be in Perigeo, and the neereſt point to the center of the earth, for theſe two places in which it falls be the higheſt and loweſt places of the Planets, the which are named Abſides ſummus, & imus, illa Apogeus, hæc perigeum.

Epicycle eſt vocabulum artis, vſed in Aſtronomy, & ſignifieth a leſſer circle, whoſe center or middle point is the circumference of a great circle.

In the vpper part of this Epicycle, the 5. Planets, Saturne, Iupiter, Mars, Venus, and Mercury, doe make forward according to the courſe of the ſigns, as from Aries to Taurus, &c. But when they are in the lower part of it, then they are Retrograde, (as I haue ſaid a little before) that is, goe backe-ward, as from Gemini to Taurus, ſo from Taurus to Aries.

Vacuity, or void of courſe, is when the Moone or any other planet is ſeparated from a planet, and not ioyned to another during his or her reſidence in a Signe. Damage or wilt, is when the Moone or any other planet is in a ſigne, & not aſpected of another.

The Golden number or Prime, is the number of 19 yeeres, in which time the Sun and Moone haue both all the variety of their Changes, Fulle, and Quarters.

Epact, is the 11 dayes & 3 houres, which are added to the yeere of the Moon, being 354 dayes, to make it equall with a yeere of the Sun, which conſiſteth of 365 dayes & 6 houres. By the Prime is found out the Epact, & by the Epact is found out the age of the Moone.

The Circle of the Sun, is the number of 28 yeeres, becauſe that in 28 yeeres, all the variety of the Dominicall letters and Leape yeeres are expired, and after 28 yeeres the ſame Circle will begin againe.

The vſe of which number is to find out the Dominicall letter for any yeere paſt or Horizon, in a great circle, shewing that part of the Heauens which we see, from the other part which we see not.

A Chronography of the 4. Quarters of this present yeere. 1634.

The Hyemall Solstitiall, or Winter Quarter did begin Astronomically, the last yeere 1633. Dec. the 21 day, 15 hour. 37 min. 39 sec. at what time Cor Cæli or the Sun entreth into the 1 min. of ♑ imaginary signe of cold & earthly Capricorne, being then declined from the Æquinoctiall, accoyding to the observation of Tycho de Brache, 23 degrees, and 31 min. 30 sec. to the South warr ostar which time the dayes be at the shortest, and nights at the longest with vs.

Æquinoctium vernum or the Spring Quarter, beginneth with vs Astronomically this yeere, the 21 of March, 7 hour. 48 min. 16 sec. in the morning: at what time Titan or ☉ neuer-resting Sun entreth into the Æquinoctiall aprie signe Aries, making the day equall with the night; that is, betweene Sun-rise, and Sun-set; and Sun-set and Sun-rise. This Quarter is naturally hot and moyst.

Solstitium Æstivum: or our Summer Quarter with vs accoyding to Astronomy, beginneth the 21 of June, 8 houres, 12 min. 51 sec. after noone: at what time, Mundi oculus, or the eye of the World entreth into the 1 minute, of the imaginary cold and moyst signe, Cancer; then making his greatest Northerne declination, at which time (in England) is our longest day and shortest night in all the yeer. Alius est velut coquus, qui omnia ad mane parat.

Autumnall Æquinoctiall, our Autome or Harvest Quarter beginneth with vs accoyding to Astronomy, the 23 day of September 8 hour. 4 min. 41 sec. in the [illegible] signe Libra:

which maketh againe one night and halfe equall to all the rest of March being.

Presages of weather, by the Raine-bow.

ARistotle saith, Met. 3. Chap. 5. Iris duplex, Solaris & Lunaris: Illa frequens est, haec rarissima. But let every one ℞ reareth this ascertaine himself by experience, that in the yeere 1632. December the 14. being Saturday at night, betweene 6, and 7. a clocke after Sunne-setting, when the Sunne was gone betweene 8. of our Horizon, 9. houres, 30. minutes, my selfe with another Gentleman did see a low faire Raine-bow, it was a semicircle of 3. colours, but not so bright as if it had beene in the day. The two ends did come close to the Horizon, it was full opposite to the Moone. She being East and by South, the Bow being West and by North. We had much small misting raine and much winde for many houres after. For the naturall significations of the Raine-bow as every what stirred as for Raine either past or to come: for if it stay or abide in the mid-day or noone-sted (which it cannot by reason in the night) shee giueth warning of some great raine to come. But if she be seene in the East she giueth warning of thin and small raine to come shortly, (and so it did) but if it be seene in the West she signifieth raine past by and by, and that it will quickly cease, and faire and cleare weather to come. Alij sic asserunt: If the Raine-bow be seene in those parts that watereth the waters of raine to be to come. If she shall be seene after noone, or [illegible] not above 1. or 2. houres, [illegible] raine to at hand. For howſoeuer that happeneth by the ſo get wſoeuer is meſſen. If two Rainebowes appeare at one time, they giue warning of raine within 1 or 2 dayes after. If Rainy-bold preſently after long raine, ſhe weth faire weather preſently.

Predictions of weather, according to holy Scripture.

1. A Cloud riſing out of the Weſt foreſheweth raine, Luke 12. 54.

2. And when ye ſee the South wind blow, ye ſay, there will be heate, & it commeth to paſſe, Luke 12. 55.

3. When it is Euening, ye ſay, It will be faire weather, for the skie is red, Mat. 16. 2.

4. And in the morning, It will be foule weather to day, for the skie is red and lowring, Mat. 16. 3.

5. South winde is great heate in the Summer, whereof they whiſtle winds, Iob 37. 9.

6. Winde in the North pierceth cold weather, Iob 37. 9.

7. The North wind driueth away raine, Pro. 25. 23.

8. The ſweet influences of Pleiades 27. Degrees in the 24 and 25. degrees of Taurus, with the Moon with bring raine, and the Plaine with Orion in the 17. degree of Gemini, Iob 38. 31. bringeth drought. Thus ſee, though holy Scriptures do auoyde theſe Weatherings: yet into vs we find not the euent altogether true. Then iudge not ſo hardly of Aſtrology.

Vse no purging medicines when the Moone is toyned with ♄ : for the effect thereof will be abated by reason of Iupiters being hot, and moyst; in which quality consisteth the vigour of life and nature.

The learned Phylicion will consider the Aspects of the Planets, and some fixed Starres within the Moone, and diuers other obseruations Astronomicall, for the necessary & conuenient administration of Phylicke. In regard whereof, and of thine owne bodily health and strength, I aduise thee that thou refuse not his counsell, lest thou repent withall. Had I wist.
